

Single Pivot Puller

Soft anti-shock and anti-wear pads

Product Features

High-strength aluminum profile with plastic-sprayed surface. The lever principle is used to adjust and control the pulling force and height through the flexibility of the power arm to repair the depression on the body surface. Make maintenance easier. Suitable for small and medium area repairs in every corner of the body.

